

Canada Aids Cuba in Agricultural Projects

---

15/12/2017

The adviser of Cooperation at the Canadian Embassy in Havana, Hilary Syme, affirmed that international aid towards Cuba has acquired dynamism with the execution of three projects in the agricultural sector.

Hilary Syme said that her country, together with the World Food Program in coordination with the Ministry of Agriculture, has implemented a program to produce grain in the Cuban municipalities of Unión de Reyes and Niceto Pérez.

The Canadian official said that the project in those regions of the provinces of Matanzas and Guantánamo involves other actors along the value chain.

---