
Alberto Subtropical Storm Leaves 7 Dead and 2 Missing in Cuba

02/06/2018

Subtropical Storm Alberto and the heavy rains that it brought left 7 dead and 2 missing in Cuba, according to the National HQ of the Civil Defense here.

According to the news that was published by Granma newspaper 2 persons died in Pinar del Río, 2 in Ciego de Ávila, 1 in Sancti Spíritus, 1 in Villa Clara and another one in Matanzas, all of them had drowned.

In relation to those 2 missing, the Civil Defense reports that they are from Ciego de Ávila and Villa Clara.

The heavy rains that Alberto brought caused flooding in rivers and towns and also affected water dams.
