Marco Rubio and Mario Díaz-Balart: God Don't Forgive Them!

01/07/2018

While in U.S. develops the scandal of thousands of infants detained in camps away from their parents, Marco Rubio and Mario Díaz-Balart, two figures from the far-right concentrate their attention on Cuba, Venezuela, and Nicaragua.

Alongside that tragedy, both Florida legislators work tirelessly to obtain the authorization of millions of dollars.

The backing of such machination would be used in subversive programs against these nations.

Such initiatives were approved for tax year 2019.

Thus informed this Thursday the New Herald journalist, Nora Gámez Torres.

She highlighted that Rubio assured that 20 million would go at the far-right of Venezuela and 15 towards groups they handle in Cuba.

According to Gámez the money for those purposes, approved by the High Chamber, bound to Cuba is the third part of the requested 30 million this year.

Alongside, Mario Díaz-Balart, helped keeping 15 millions approved in 2018 under the alleged reason of helping to promote democracy in Venezuela in the next tax year.

Rubio also asserted that 391 million would be given for the named assistance on security and human rights programs in Colombia, as well as five millions for Nicaragua.

The journalist from the Herald added that cooperation programs toward Central American countries received 515 million dollars, on request of the far-right senators.

The figures aforementioned will be analyzed by a committee of members from both chambers.

On Gámez Torres's report she underlines that, everything indicates that there was a quicker agreement on the budget proposal for the Office of Broadcasts to Cuba.

In this plan have been avoided hard cuts on the budgets of TV and Radio Martí.

As much as 29 million have been dedicated for this Office, which recently named as director the former mayor of Miami, Tomás Regalado.

Observers have insinuated that the abundant money that Rubio and Díaz-Balart wish to invest in subversive actions against Cuba, Venezuela, and Nicaragua could have a more generous purpose.

That both helped gathered thousands of boys and girls in camps, far away from their parents who ignore their whereabouts, following orders of Donald Trump.

Marco Rubio and Mario Díaz-Balart, don't deserve God forgiveness.
