
Cuba and Nigeria to explore business opportunities

26/06/2018

Cuba and Nigeria will explore business and investment opportunities in areas of common interest at a business forum to be hosted by the island's Chamber of Commerce.

The event, set for next Thursday at Havana's Hotel Nacional, will provide visiting Nigerian businessmen with tips on how to do business on the island and information of its the Legal Framework of Foreign Investment.

During the forum the Chambers of Commerce of Cuba and Nigeria are expected to sign a Memorandum of Understanding and businessmen will hold meetings on business opportunities of both countries.
