
Three explosions rock Sri Lankan city as police search for Easter attackers - reports

26/04/2019

BREAKING NEWS

Three explosions have reportedly rocked a city on Sri Lanka's eastern seaboard as the police and the army carry out searches targeting suspects from last weekend's deadly bombings.

Police have been conducting searches across Sri Lanka in the aftermath of the deadly suicide bombings on churches and hotels which killed more than 250 people. Islamic State (IS, formerly ISIS) claimed responsibility for the bombings.

DETAILS TO FOLLOW
