Cristina Fernandez Thanks Argentines for Supporting Frente de Todo

12/08/2019

Former President and vice presidential candidate Cristina Fernandez thanked Argentines for supporting the Frente de Todos Party in the primary elections held on Sunday.

In a message from the Patagonian city of Rio Gallegos, where she cast her vote, the former president expressed her commitment to a new era.

She appeared calm and happy in a video posted on social media, but called on the government to provide real and true data in these elections.

Indeed, the figures we have make us very happy and optimistic, she said in reference to the 47.22% of the vote secured by Frente de Todos, according to the preliminary count.
