
Americas qualifier for U-23 Baseball World Cup set to open in Nicaragua, Honduras

21/02/2020

The Americas Qualifier for the WBSC U-23 Baseball World Cup 2020 is set to open today (Friday, 21 February) in the Central American countries of Nicaragua and Honduras.

Group A in Managua, Nicaragua: World No. 15 Nicaragua, No. 9 Venezuela, No. 10 Dominican Republic, No. 22 Brazil, No. 43 Peru and No. 65 El Salvador.

Group B in Tegucigalpa, Honduras: World No. 54 Honduras, No. 8 Cuba, No. 13 Panama, No. 14 Colombia, No. 24 Argentina and No. 59 Guatemala.

How to Watch

Games will be live-streamed by Béisbol de América, the official YouTube channel of the Pan-American Baseball Confederation (COPABE) and WBSC's GameTime Sport YouTube channel.

The match between the Dominican Republic and Venezuela will start Group A action at 10:00 a.m. local time at Dennis Martinez Stadium in Managua.

The other games scheduled on Day 1 in Managua are (all times local):

2 pm: Brazil vs El Salvador at Estadio Nacional

6 pm: Peru vs Nicaragua at Dennis Martinez Stadium

Group B in Honduras kicks off with Colombia and Guatemala at 9 a.m. local time at Hector Sosa Stadium in Tegucigalpa.

The other Group B games scheduled on Day 1 are:

2 pm: Cuba vs Panama at Hector Sosa Stadium

7 pm: Honduras vs Argentina at Hector Sosa Stadium
