
Turkish Airliner Makes Emergency Landing Over Bomb Scare

30/03/2015

A Turkish Airlines Boeing 777 en route from Istanbul to Sao Paulo declared an emergency and diverted to Casablanca, a spokeswoman for the airline said.

According to AirLive's Twitter, a note reading "Bomb" was found at the airplane's toilet cabin.

The airliner has landed safely in Casablanca. Prior to that, all flights were diverted from the Casablanca airport.

After the Turkish airliner landed, all flights to Casablanca were resumed, Flightradar24 reports:

DETAILS TO FOLLOW