
All Ready for Cuba-Mexico Meet in World Boxing Series

10/04/2015

All is ready here for the meet Cuba-Mexico today between the Cuban Domadores and the Guerreros of Mexico, as part of the World Boxing Series.

During the weighting it was made official that the Mexican squad will be formed by Orlando Huitzil (52 kilograms), William Zepeda (60), Héctor Andrés Reyes (69), Ecuadorian Carlos Mina (81) and Edgar Ramírez (over 91).

Meanwhile, Cuba ratified Yosbany Veitía, Lázaro Álvarez, Roniel Iglesias, Julio César La Cruz and Leinier Peró, in that order.

The duel to be held this Friday night at the Ciudad Deportiva colosseum of Havana, the hosts arrive as favorites for being first in Group A and a sure ticket to semifinals of the tournament.

For their part, Mexicans are third in the same group and if they keep that place, they would advance to quarterfinals, to face the second place of the other group.