
Cuban President Raul Castro Meets with Haitian President Michel Martelly

21/05/2014

During the cordial encounter, Raul Castro and Michel Martelly exchanged views on the good state of bilateral relations and addressed issues of international interest, according to Granma newspaper.

The Haitian president was accompanied by the presidential advisor for foreign affairs, Pierre-Richard Casimir, and on the Cuban side was foreign minister, Bruno Rodriguez.
