

---

"Omara de Cuba" concert at Havana's Teatro Nacional

---

08/01/2016

The concert, which was initially planned for January 3, was postponed due to bad weather, as informed the Cuban Music Institute.

In a unique moment of her career, when she is requested in different parts of the world, Omara Portuondo will let her public that includes three generations at present, to seduce her. She will be accompanied by the National Symphony Orchestra, directed by Maestro Enrique Pérez Mesa and by members of the Buena Vista Social Club musical project.

There will be other guests like Alexander Abreu, Luna Manzanares and Bárbara Llanes.

This way, the Buena Vista Social Club diva will start a musical year that will take her to Europe to promote her latest album Magia Negra—such as her first one in solitaire, in 1958—with which she proposes to celebrate her life and her musical career. The Novia del Feeling concert, as Omara Portuondo is also known, will take place at the Avellaneda Room of the Teatro Nacional de Cuba on January 10, 5:00 pm.

Tickets can be bought at the Theatre located at Avenida Paseo y 39, Plaza de la Revolución. Reservations can also be done through RESERVAS ON-LINE, www.teatronacional.cu

Translation: Liana Fleitas (Cubarte)