Cuban Dayalis Gonzalez and Belgian Felix De Clerck held a meeting in which they discussed about cultural exchange in the field of visual arts between the two countries, diplomatic sources reported.

The Flanders Arts Institute supports and encourages the development of visual arts, music and performance, according to a press note released by the Cuban Embassy in this European country.

Gonzalez is in Belgium as part of the presentation of the exhibition 'Signs of Cuba: Female Proposals', which opened to the public on March 2 at the European Parliament.
