

---

Cuba Exhibits Advances in International Health Fair in Oman

17/03/2016

The agency also provided participants with information about treatments for diabetes, cancer and other diseases, which showed the high quality and prestige of Cuban health, said the statement issued by the Cuban embassy.

The International Health Exhibition of Muscat is held every year in Oman with the participation of leading hospitals, health centers, clinics and pharmaceutical companies that seek advanced technology and innovative products.

---