
Cuban Foreign Minister to Address the Press on Thursday

17/03/2016

The announcement, published as main headline in Cuban media outlets, reads that the foreign minister's statements will be delivered from the press room set up at Havana's Tryp-Habana Hotel for the coverage of the visit here by US President Barack Obama, who is expected to arrive on Sunday, March 20.

Granma newspaper explains that the statements by the foreign minister will be aired live on Cuban radio and TV.
