Presentation of Ravel's "Bolero" in Cuba

26/04/2016

The choreographed performance included dancers from the Cuban Arts University and the companies Acosta Danza, Retazos and Danzabierta.

After four months of pre-production and rehearsals, "Bolero" will be staged a total of eight times until May 1st.

The piece, originally composed as a ballet commissioned by Russian actress and dancer Ida Rubinstein, premiered at the Opera Garnier of Paris in 1928.

The "Bolero" has become Ravel's most famous musical composition and one of the most played musical works in the world.
