
Man Kills 5 Bikers with Hunting Rifle on Outskirts of Moscow

09/05/2016

“There has been an attack on a group of bikers, five people were killed. The attacker was armed with a Saiga hunting carbine... law enforcement is now looking for him,” a spokesman for the region’s emergencies services told Russian media outlets.

Shortly after the incident, the alleged perpetrator, a resident of Chelokhovo village, in Yogoryevsk district of Moscow, was arrested.

Two women who were with the group of bikers witnessed the incident.

The five victims and the murder suspect were allegedly drinking liquor at a nearby abandoned brewery when the altercation took place.
