
Cuba and Denmark Regularize Bilateral Debt

24/06/2016

Havana, Jun 24 (Prensa Latina) Vicepresident of the Council of Ministers, Ricardo Cabrisas Ruiz and the Danish ambassador to Havana, Henrik Bramsen Hahn, signed the agreement of Regularization of the Bilateral Debt. According to the Cuban Foreign Ministry website (Minrex), the signing of the protocol is part of the process of application of the Multilateral Agreement signed by the Ad-Hoc Group of Creditor Countries in the Paris Club and Cuba.

Cabrisas and Bramsen Hahn also talked about the positive bilateral relations and confirmed the importance of this agreement for the development of future economic, commercial, financial and investment links between Cuba and Denmark.

The ambassador was accompanied by the adviser on International Policy of the Danish Agency of Credits to Exports (EKF), Carl Johan Mortensen, who signed with Vicepresident of the National Bank of Cuba (BNC), Aleida Gonzalez, the agreement that regularizes the short-term debt between both institutions.

Also representing Cuba at the meeting were Yamila Fernandez del Busto, general director of the Ministry of Foreign Trade and Investment, and Elio Rodriguez, director of Europe and Canada and Manuel Pirez, director of International Law, the two of them from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
