
Cuban First Vice President Leads Delegation to Nicaragua

18/07/2016

First Vice President, Miguel Diaz-Canel, leads his country's delegation to attend the celebrations for the 37th anniversary of the Sandinista Revolution in Nicaragua, Granma newspaper reported today. According to the newspaper, the delegation is also comprised of Deputy Foreign Minister, Ana Teresita Gonzalez, and Havana ambassador to Nicaragua, Eduardo Martinez.

The main event for the Nicaraguan anniversary will take place tomorrow in Managua, capital of the country.
