
Prime Minister of Lesotho Begins Visit to Cuba

26/09/2016

Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Lesotho, Pakalitha Bethuel Mosisili, today began an official visit to Cuba, which will strengthen relations between the two nations.

According to the Cuban Foreign Ministry, the distinguished visitor will hold official talks with Cuban First Vice President Miguel Diaz-Canel, among other activities.

Cuba and Lesotho established diplomatic relations in 1979, which are developed based on cooperation and solidarity.

Currently, the bilateral collaboration includes the presence of Cuban doctors and training in the Caribbean island of young people of that nation in southern Africa as health specialists.
