

---

Danish Theater Group to Perform in Cuba

26/10/2016

Matanzas, Cuba, Oct 26 (Prensa Latina) Being considered one of the most important theater groups of the contemporary scene, the Odin Teatret will perform in Cuba on November 1st and 2nd in this Cuban western city, confirmed today the National Council of the Performing Arts.

This collective of artists led since 1964 by the Italian master Eugenio Barba, with headquarters in the Danish city of Holstebro, returns to the island in a visit similar visit, by their intensity and extension to the one they made in 2002.

Organized by the National Council of the Performing Arts, the Tables-Alarcos Publishing House and other cultural institutions, the tour also includes several Cuban provinces.

In this occasion they will present a show, spectacle of the Nordisk Teaterlaboratorium, with Carolina Pizarro, directed by Julia Varley, and Ave Maria, with Varley.

The El Miron Cubano Room will host demonstrations and master lectures, as well as 'From Amagaki to Shibugaki, Geography of a Learning,' also of the Nordisk Teaterlaboratorium.

The most recent visit by this Danish theater group was last year.