
Swedish court upholds arrest warrant for Assange

16/07/2014

Swedish prosecutors want to question Assange over the allegations made by two female former WikiLeaks volunteers. Assange denies the allegations and has been fighting a legal battle against extradition since his arrest in Britain in Dec. 2010.

Assange says he fears Sweden could in turn extradite him to the United States to be tried for one of the largest leaks of classified information in U.S. history.

(Reporting by Johan Ahlander; Editing by Alistair Scrutton)
